Developmental Screening Referral Diagnosis and Service Task Force Results in Review

The Developmental Screening, Referral, Diagnosis and Service (DSRDS) Task Force report is complete. The Watch Me Grow Steering Committee is reviewing the recommendations. In the next few months, they will be determining the feasibility of adopting the recommendations.

The DSRDS Task Force final report is available on Spark New Hampshire's website at: <http://bit.ly/2tqROzo>

Transferring Data from ASQ to Welligent

The full implementation of transferring data from ASQ online to Welligent has been delayed once again due to Welligent's schedule. The target deadline is now end of July. We apologize for the delay. We have conveyed to Welligent the critical importance of getting this in place. They are waiting for the new version of Oracle to be installed, which affects our "data bridge" work.

QUARTERLY CORNER

Watch Me Grow Website Hack

In June the Watch Me Grow website was hacked. We were successful in working with our tech team to ensure the hack was cleared out. This event prompted us to increase our cyber security for the website.
